On behalf of California Business for Education Excellence (CBEE), I write to congratulate you on the outstanding success your school has made in raising student academic achievement. After an extensive analysis of student achievement data for every public school in California, your school stood well above the rest in getting your students to grade level proficiency and beyond.

It is for that reason we have named you a California Business for Education Excellence Honor Roll School for 2012.

The list of Honor Roll schools continues to grow thanks to the hard work and effective practices of thousands of excellent principals, teachers and support personnel in our public schools. Since 2005 the Honor Roll increased from 261 high performing schools to an inspiring 2,108 high performing schools in 2012. This is a testament to the relentless focus on results for students that you, your staff and your peers have shown over the years. It is also a strong statement about how success is spreading in public schools across the state.

Your school or district office is encouraged to promote your school as a 2012 Honor Roll recipient. To assist you in that effort, please visit the CBEE website (www.cbee.org) and click on the Honor Roll section to find links to a sample press release and logos you can use in materials, announcements and on your own website. If you would like to order an Honor Roll banner, free of charge, visit <http://www.edresults.org/honorroll/banner/> It will take 2-3 weeks for you to receive the banner.

If you have any questions about the banner or the Honor Roll, please contact Theresa Wheeler at (916) 498-8980 or theresa@cbee.org.

Our heartfelt congratulations and thank you for a job well done. We look forward to telling your story and promoting your success.

Sincerely,

James S. Lanich, Ph.D.
President
